

CAROLINE BENN MEMORIAL LECTURE 2014

Caroline Benn 1926 - 2000

Selina Todd will deliver this year's Caroline Benn Memorial Lecture.

The lecture is entitled 'The golden age of the grammar school: exploding the myth!' 'It wasn't grammar schools that assisted working-class people to get to university, but the introduction of comprehensive schools.'

Admission is open to all but please email the SEA at: socialisteducation@virginmedia.com to confirm your attendance.

Dr Selina Todd is a Lecturer in Modern British History and a Fellow of St Hilda's College, Oxford. She was educated at a comprehensive school in Newcastle-upon-Tyne. Selina's research interests focus on working-class and women's history in modern Britain. Her latest book is entitled The People: The Rise and Fall of the Working Class 1910–2010.

The Caroline Benn Memorial Lecture takes place at 6.00pm on Tuesday 11th November 2014 in Committee Room 14, House of Commons, London SW1A 0AA. Please email the SEA to reserve your place. All welcome. Admission free.
